

Curriculum Vitae

András Szigeti

BORN

7 August 1974, Budapest

NATIONALITY

Hungarian

CURRENT STATUS

2004- Rector's Research Fellow at Central European University, Budapest

2000- Doctoral Student of Philosophy at Central European University, Budapest

EDUCATION

2003-4 Chevening/FCO Visiting Student at the University of Oxford (Oriel College)

2000- Doctoral Student of Philosophy at Central European University, Budapest

1995-2000 Universität Basel, Switzerland

Major fields of study: Philosophy (in German) and English

Degree received: June 2000, 'Lizentiat' in Philosophy (major) and English Literature and Linguistics

1993-95 Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest (English and Philosophy)

1993 International Baccalaureate at the United World Colleges of the Atlantic, Wales

PAPERS PRESENTED

'Morality and the rationality of emotions: moral dilemmas revisited' - Workshop on Themes from the Work of Ronald de Sousa, ELTE Department of Philosophy (Budapest), November 2006

'The ledger view of moral responsibility' - Bled Philosophical Conference on Free Will and Responsibility (Bled, Slovenia), May 2006

'The emotivistic concept of moral responsibility (a reply)' - Philosophy Graduate Conference (CEU, Budapest), March 2006

'The problem of institutional responsibility and the European Union' - Workshop on the moral aspects of international relations and the EU's role (Helsinki), June 2004

'Moral sentiments and moral dilemmas' - Ockham Society (Oxford), January 2004

'Inescapable practices: reconciliatory compatibilism and moral responsibility' - Bled Philosophical Conference on Ethics (Bled, Slovenia), June 2003

'On the relation of reflection and knowledge in ethics' - Fourth European Congress for Analytical Philosophy (Lund, Sweden), June 2002

PUBLICATIONS

'The problem of institutional responsibility and the European Union' In Mayer, H. & Vogt, H. (eds.): A Responsible Europe? Palgrave 2006, 17-35. <http://www.palgrave.com/pdfs/1403988161.pdf>

'Freedom: A Global Theory? A Review of Philip Pettit's A Theory of Freedom. From the Psychology to the Politics of Agency' Croatian Journal of Philosophy 2005:13 V, 157-176.

'The Hungarian Liberals' Sad Wednesday' Élet és Irodalom 2000:35 (46), 3 [in Hungarian]

'Roman Jakobson's Criticisms and Development of Ferdinand de Saussure's Theory on the Arbitrariness of the Linguistic Sign.' The Odd Yearbook, Budapest: ELTE School of English and American Studies 1998, 265-276.

'Innovation and Representation in Postmodern Fiction' The Anachronist, Budapest: ELTE School of English and American Studies 1998, 133-165.

'The Difficulty of English' The Odd Yearbook, Budapest: ELTE School of English and American Studies 1995, 113-124.

'The Love Song of J. Alfred Prufrock' The Anachronist, Budapest: ELTE School of English and American Studies 1995, 186-196.

RELEVANT WORK EXPERIENCE

2004- As Rector's Research Fellow at Central European University organizer of several workshops and research programmes as well as coordinator of research and policy-related projects including:

TRANSFER: coordination of application procedure for pan-European research project with Birkbeck (University of London)

LOCOMOTIVE: a multinational research project funded by the European Commission within the 6th Framework Program

1993-1994 Co-editor and author of the Newsletter of the Hungarian Philosophical Society

AWARDS, PRIZES

1994 First prize for the best student seminar paper at the Department of English Studies at ELTE, Budapest

1991-1993 Two years scholarship at the United World Colleges of the Atlantic

1992 Prize of the Italian Ministry of Culture and Education granting a one-month stay at the Università per Stranieri of Siena

1991 Ninth place at the Hungarian National Competition of Secondary School Students in Literature

LANGUAGES

Hungarian (native), English (fluent), German (fluent), Italian (fluent)

REFERENCES

Additional references (subject to permission) can be obtained from Dr Helen Lawton-Smith (Birkbeck), Dr Martha Klein (Oxford, Pembroke), Prof. Arthur Jacobson (Cardozo Law School), Prof. Emeritus David Wiggins (Oxford).